25X1

1. On 1 October 1951 the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) Lao Dong Party opened a college at Langson for the training of party and political cadres. Truong Chinh, Secretary General of the Lao Dong Party, is principal of the college, Ho Tung Mau¹ is vice principal [] and Lu Do Dan ([])² is dean of studies.
2. The college has been established to raise the educational level of party members, to consolidate intra-party organizations and to strengthen ties among party cadres. The course lasts two months and now includes classes in military science, politics, party affairs, mass movements and labor movements.
3. Students now attending the college are 200 Lao Dong party members who work in various government departments. All cadres on the branch headquarters level and above will eventually attend the college.
